1. Employment agencies which are attached to the Association of Labor Unions have been established in the capital of every district. They are under the Labor Union Association of their respective districts. All vacancies in nationalized or private enterprises of any kind have to be reported to the agencies, which then assign workers to the enterprises. Unemployed are given consideration only if they possess the following papers:
 - a. Labor Union membership card and certificate that dues have been paid.
 - b. Membership card of the Rumanian Workers Party or of another governmental party or a Communist mass organization.
 - c. Certificate of military service.
 - d. Certificate from the former employer and reasons for dismissal. (All persons who have been dismissed for being "reactionaries" or for political unreliability cannot maintain the membership card of a party or a mass organization. They have no further chance to obtain employment).
2. All occupations, including artisans and intellectuals must register at the employment agencies.
